Beyond Infinity is a one-level affiliate platform in the Referral Marketing arena. We are not a Network Marketing company or an MLM. When you become an affiliate member, you are NOT an employee of the company. You are an independent affiliate. Beyond Infinity is not an investment company and we are not Traders, and our members are not investors. The company does have its own private investments and they are sharing their personal profits with the members as Profit Share Earnings in Beyond Infinity Gold (BIG).

As to the marketing campaign contributions that are made and will provide a brand-new car for each contributor, as soon as possible, after one year, we use those contributions for our upfront marketing costs. And we take the bulk of those contributions and put them into our private investments to allow them to grow for a year or more to be able to purchase a new vehicle for every contributor. However, when a member makes a contribution through our BIG Auto Club, those contributions become the property of Beyond Infinity. Therefore, we are not investing for the members, but we are investing for the company. And when you can invest larger amounts of money, over smaller amounts, the profits are much greater. And this is how we will purchase the new vehicles.
